

SONNHALTER
PRESS INFO 2023

When Kai Sonnhalter quit his job in his mid-thirties and set off on travels with his backpack and guitar, he created his debut EP 'The Journey Is The Reward, which the singer/songwriter released in 2015 under the name SONNHALTER. Pleasing songs with catchy hooks and melodies reveal their musical and lyrical depth only upon closer listening.

Three solo EPs and an album with the band project StereoKai later, SONNHALTER is equipped with the international songwriter award "Prix des Aralunaires" as well as support shows for PUR, Jupiter Jones, and Nico Santos. Although SONNHALTER's sound has become more earthy and rocky, his message has hardly changed: melancholy and hopeful at the same time, it bridges the gap between the lightness of being and the bittersweet irony of life.

A SONNHALTER live concert offers captivating songs, a personable and authentic frontman, and a band consisting of drummer Daniel Schild (among others, Pietro Lombardi), bassist Sebastian 'Schlapbe' Flach (among others, Gregor Meyle), and keyboardist Bernie Wittmann (among others, Matthias Reim) brimming with joy and energy..
